

SET YOUR SIGHT.

Once a righteous and wise king, Solomon encountered that which threatens us all - temptations of a fruit forbidden.

His eyes washed with white, burning light, his mind submerged by a cacophony of ceaseless endeavor. Solomon lost his soul to the digital ether. Every shred of his humanity, engulfed in bits & bytes as pointy and rigid as pins & needles.

Oh, Solomon, Soulless Solomon, a vessel emptied by the ceaseless beating drum of inexorable modernity. Will you ever head homeward? Will you ever return to the flesh which you have so carelessly set aflame?

LEGENDARY

21 Legendary assets comprise the most exclusive tier that Solomon has to offer. Items that shall remain unnamed, and can only be interpreted by hinting at Solomon's participation in a metaphysical reality beyond those defined in other tiers. These extremely rare, exclusive items begin to tell a story, and paint a picture much larger than Solomon himself.

Soul Search

As a collective of seasoned artists watching the NFT space burgeon from the sidelines - we knew we wanted to get involved, but we wanted to ensure we were doing something new, different, and unique.

We needed to do something that would capture the attention of both traditional, and new age art markets.

Solomon's Soul won't be found online. It will be found in your neighbourhoods - through in-person, simultaneous, street art drops in major cities around the globe.

With each street art event, a unique QR code - and a chance to help Solomon find his soul in your NFT.

WHY SOLANA?

While Ethereum has long been the home for NFT projects, a fierce competitor is rearing its head and rapidly approaching in Solana - a rival blockchain that supports much quicker transaction speeds with a fraction of the per-transaction consumer cost.

It's being touted as the future for NFT's, with designers and blockchain developers flocking to the space in droves, and rushing to be the Solana's version of CryptoPunks.

This newest project on the scene, aiming to dominate the Solana NFT space comes from a collective of artists and veteran blockchain developers, operating under the project moniker of Soulless Solomon.

The project will be generating 7,777 unique artworks, hand drawn by an in-house team of artists, and holding a project “minting” that will see thousands of potential customers rushing to try to attain an original piece in this limited run.

GET INVOLVED

The team behind the project has weaved an eerie, biblical prose into each work of art, instilling the project's story with sardonic commentary on internet culture and technology, reminiscent of modern artists like street-art sensation Banksy.

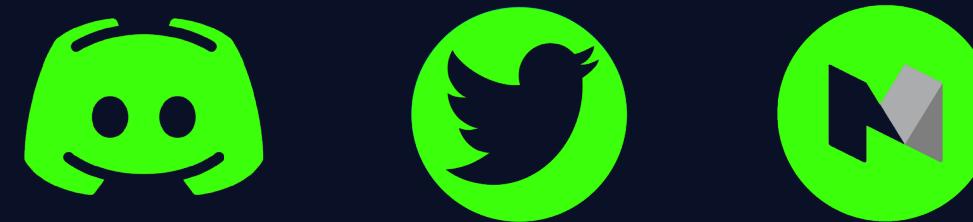

We intend to market the project to a vast community of NFT traders, and carry through on a project roadmap which will see the creation of unique merchandise, and custom assets for owners and traders to outfit their digital profiles.

If you're looking to get in on the NFT trend, and believe Solana could be the next big hub for this new wave of frenzied art-collecting - this seems like the perfect project to jump aboard. The best way to get involved in the project is to join their Discord community, and stay up to date with the launch window and promotional giveaways leading up to the artwork minting.
